

Hall of Fame Nomination Form

Name of nominee:

Name and email of proposer:

References (2 – 3 individuals (not family members) please include their contact information (phone and email) (exceptions to this requirement are made for deceased individuals where references may not be available):

Criteria: The Cuban Bankers Hall of Fame seeks to elevate the most exceptional individuals for this prestigious honor. Individuals who have advanced the interests and image of banking through their many remarkable accomplishments.

- Personal
  - Unimpeachable ethical record of integrity
  - Retired for at least 5 years
  - Active banker for 20 years or more
  - The nominee's career may have been in Cuba, continued outside Cuba or developed totally outside Cuba
    - Nominee must be Cuban born or his/her parents be Cuban born or nominee or forefathers must have been naturalized in Cuba between 1902-1959.
    - "Special mention" of bankers who may have lived in Cuba or elsewhere may be considered by the Board, at its sole discretion
  - Nominee can be living or deceased

- Industry Contributions
  - This individual has forever changed the industry:
    - By creating or implementing a game-changing product or process; and/or
    - By writing influential materials and/or passionately educating future industry leaders; and/or
    - Through recognition as a prominent authority and leader in the industry; and/or
    - Through the manner in which financial services are provided to consumers

- Played a key role in supporting industry relations by bringing people from all business segments and related sectors together in a cooperative and beneficial way that helped advance the industry
- Was a visionary with a national and/or global perspective that created opportunities and identified avenues of expansion for the banking industry.
- Leadership
  - Made significant contributions by serving in leadership positions in national and/or international banking associations or other industry-related groups.
  - Demonstrated leadership skills in administrative and policy areas that helped advance the industry's objectives.
  - Provided significant support for industry initiatives and programs and promoted awareness of the industry's many positive contributions to the nation's economy and quality of life.
- Corporate Citizenship
  - Provided leadership in corporate citizenship/social responsibility and has been recognized for leading by example.
  - Supports worthy causes that have had positive impacts on industry professionals and/or boosted the industry's image through the support of these social causes.
  - Provided a means or a program to educate industry professionals in sound corporate citizenship as part of his/her overall responsibility to the community.

Using the criteria above, please describe below why you believe this individual should be included in the Cuban Bankers "Hall of Fame":

Nomination forms must be completed in their entirety; incomplete forms will be disqualified.
Self-nominations are not permitted.

Please Note: Nomination does not assure selection.